-----X
PETER W. LINDNER,

Plaintiff,

-against-

AMERICAN EXPRESS CORP., QUIG LIN

Defendants.

06 Civ. 3834 (JGK) (THK)

Order

THEODORE H. KATZ, UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE.

By letter dated February 25, 2010, Plaintiff's attorney, Albert Adam Breud, seeks to withdraw from his continued representation of Plaintiff Peter W. Lindner, contending that "Mr. Lindner's behavior and statements . . . are inhibiting [his] ability to represent him in a profound manner and [have] caused a complete breakdown of the attorney-client relationship."¹

Although disagreeing with Mr. Breud's characterization of Plaintiff's behavior, by letter dated March 11, 2010, Plaintiff takes issue with the representation he has received from Mr. Breud and indicates that he is "close to getting a new lawyer."

Under these circumstances, the Court finds it appropriate to relieve Mr. Breud from continuing to represent Plaintiff. The irreconcilable differences between Mr. Breud and Mr. Lindner prevent Mr. Breud from representing Plaintiff in a manner that is consistent with his professional and ethical obligations. See

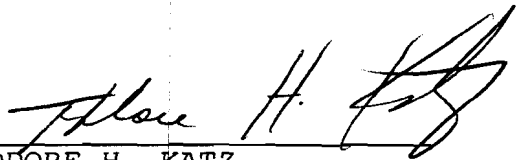

¹ Mr. Breud made a prior application to be relieved, which the Court denied.
